ICFF Weekly Connect New Masterclass Series

By Ingrid Du Buisson, CEO – ICFF

New Masterclass Series

Supply Chain & Regulatory Compliance – First Session 30 July 2026

We are launching a new monthly Supply Chain & Regulatory Compliance Masterclass Series beginning Thursday, 30 July 2026 @ 12h30 to 13h30.

Online Attendance | Book with Imapheto@icff.co.za to reserve your seat

Free for ICFF Members | Da Vinci Faculty Members

Free for ICFF Professional Workforce Partner™ Organizations

Non - Members | Fee payable is R350 (Excl VAT)

The sessions will run on the last Thursday of each month and focus on the regulatory, traceability, and operational requirements now shaping global supply chains.

The first masterclass, “Supply Chain Compliance: End-to-End Traceability and Regulatory Readiness in 2026”, will address the move from periodic reporting to continuous, data-driven verification and the practical steps required to meet new due-diligence and disclosure obligations.

Synopsis

This opening session examines why one-up; one-back visibility is no longer sufficient. It covers the shift to event-based traceability, the data requirements of emerging regulations, and the practical steps organisations must take to build verifiable chain-of-custody across multiple supplier tiers. The session includes guidance on preparing for EUDR deadlines, Digital Product Passport obligations, and audit expectations.

Full schedule will follow shortly.

Masterclasses are ICFF endorsed as CDP programs towards meeting your professional designation requirements.

Appointment of our Regional Head of Business Development & Recruitment in KZN

Effective 1 August 2026, Ashnee Moodley joins ICFF as the Regional Head of Business Development & Recruitment in KwaZulu-Natal, bringing with her more than 23 years of specialist recruitment experience within the shipping, freight, logistics, and supply chain sectors.

Ashnee began her career in administration at the renowned Lee Botti & Associates, where she developed a strong foundation in recruitment before progressing into a successful Recruitment Consultant role specialising in shipping and logistics. Throughout her career, she has partnered with businesses and professionals across the country, recruiting at all levels within clearing and forwarding, freight forwarding, customs, port operations, vessels, ships agency, and broader supply chain functions.

We Welcome Ashnee to the ICFF team!

Her extensive industry knowledge, strong professional network, and people-centric approach have earned her a reputation as a trusted recruitment partner within the logistics sector. Passionate about connecting talented individuals with meaningful career opportunities, Ashnee has consistently delivered recruitment solutions that create long-term value for both clients and candidates.

Beyond recruitment, Ashnee has played an instrumental role in training and mentoring new consultants, sharing her expertise and helping develop future recruitment professionals across multiple branches. She credits much of her professional growth and success to the mentorship of industry leaders Lee Botti, Kim Botti, and Jill Morris, whose commitment to excellence helped shape her values and approach to business. Having been part of an agency renowned for its mission of “Excellence through Quality Service,” Ashnee continues to uphold these principles in every aspect of her work. Her focus remains on building strong relationships, delivering exceptional service, and helping organisations secure the best talent in an increasingly competitive market.

As she embarks on this exciting new chapter with the ICFF, Ashnee is committed to driving business growth and recruitment in this sector throughout KwaZulu-Natal, strengthening client partnerships, and providing innovative recruitment solutions that support the evolving needs of the logistics and supply chain industry.

Ashnee firmly believes it is about building lasting partnerships, creating opportunities, and making a meaningful difference in people’s lives and careers.

Personal Motto | DON’T JUST DO THE JOB. DO IT SO WELL THEY REMEMBER IT!
